BPA Theatre School | 2010-2011 Season

Start Acting Out…at BPA Theatre School

Come experience the magic of performing and being a part of live theatre with BPA's 2010-2011 theatre school offerings. All levels of experience are welcome!

BPA's educational programs support the values of successful learning and include year-round classes for ages 3 1/2-adult as well as public and private school Outreach. All courses focus on building confidence, effective and caring group skills, and instilling a comfort with and love of the arts. By providing a non-judgmental, positive, and supportive environment, BPA's Theatre School helps youth tap into their own creativity and respect that of others!
