Velveteen Rabbit showcases local youth

Performances of Bainbridge Performing Arts' production of The Velveteen Rabbit continue weekends through April 3.

Co-directed by Elizabeth Dequine and Edward Sampson, the show follows Margery Williams' classic story about a velveteen rabbit learning what it takes to become real. All children in the show are between nine and 14 years old.

Friday performances begin at 7:30 p.m., Saturday shows start at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. On Sunday, the show begins at 6 p.m.

Tickets cost $6.50 for adults, $4.50 for students and seniors and $3 for children five and under. Tickets can be purchased at Vern's Winslow Drugs and Village Pharmacy.

Jordan Harrison, left, and Garth Sundem double as The Boy in BPA's version of The Velveteen Rabbit.
