BPA's educational programs support the values of successful learning and personal growth. Offering classes year round, BPA Theatre School strives to make every student feel comfortable, excited, and proud of his or her endeavors. All courses focus on the development of self-esteem, effective and caring group skills, and a comfort with and love of the arts. By providing a non-judgmental, positive, and supportive environment, BPA Theatre School helps children tap into their own creativity and respect that of others! For information on how you can participate, contact Victoria Whitlow at vwhitlow@bainbridgeperformingarts.org or 206.842.4560.
