Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra presents a special screening of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf"
Saturday, January 29, beginning at 9:45 a.m. @ The Pavilion

Shake off the winter doldrums and enter the magical, musical world of Prokofiev, where French Horns play the part of a wolf who just might eat somebody, and stringed instruments represent a boy overcoming his fears. Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra is pleased to offer this enchanting musical program to entertain youngsters and their families, and encourage potential future musicians.

BPA Artistic Director Steven Fogell designed original puppets specifically for the show. The puppets will focus and entertain the children as puppeteers help characterize and reinforce the on-screen performance of "Peter and the Wolf." Advance publicity will include puppet and instrument demonstrations at KiDiMu and in the schools. An instrument "petting zoo," i.e., demonstrations with soloists and instruments will precede the theater screening.

Cameron Snow, of Snow Productions, video-recorded the Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra's March 2009 performance of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf." The DVD end product features both the performance by the Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra (narrated by Guy Sidora), and interviews with soloists. Sale of the DVD, and public showings was licensed by G. Schirmer, Inc.

Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra's screening of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" appears at The Pavilion, 403 Madison Avenue, Bainbridge Island on Saturday, January 29. Pre-program activities begin in the lobby of the theater at 9:45 a.m. The screening, complete with puppets, begins at 10:30 a.m. in the theater. The program includes a $5 suggested donation.

Generous supporters include KiDiMu, Far Away Entertainment, Snow Productions, Kitsap Bank (Bainbridge Branch), and Bainbridge Performing Arts. Music acquisition for the BSO's 2010-2011 Season
