A Special BSO Screening of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" at Bainbridge Cinemas at the Pavilion
Saturday, January 14 @ 11:00 a.m.; pre-program activities begin @ 10:00 a.m.

Shake off the winter doldrums and enter the magical, musical world of Prokofiev, where French Horns play the part of a wolf who just might eat somebody, and stringed instruments represent a boy overcoming his fears. Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra is pleased to offer this enchanting musical program to entertain youngsters and their families, and encourage potential future musicians.

Pre-program activities in the lobby of the theater will include hands-on craft fun for children plus a musical "petting zoo." Participants will have the opportunity to meet musicians of the Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra, try out percussion instruments, and enjoy instrument demonstrations. The program in the theater includes both the "Peter and the Wolf" screening and special live entertainment, to be announced.

Cameron Snow, of Snow Productions, video-recorded the Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra's March 2009 performance of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf." The DVD end product features both the performance by the Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra (narrated by Guy Sidora), and interviews with soloists. Sale of the DVD and public showings were licensed by G. Schirmer, Inc.

Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" appears one morning only at Bainbridge Cinemas at the Pavilion, 403 Madison Avenue, Saturday at 11:00 a.m., with pre-program activities beginning at 10:00 a.m. Suggested donations are $5.00 per person.

Bainbridge Performing Arts extends special thanks to the BSO Corporate Sponsor Kitsap Bank and sponsor Fletcher Bay Foundation. Generous supporters of the "Peter and the Wolf" screening include Far Away Entertainment, Snow Productions, and Bainbridge Performing Arts. BPA is supported, in part, by the Arts & Humanities Council and One Call for All.
