Bainbridge Performing Arts (BPA) Announces Appointment of Production / Facility Manager Mark Sell

Bainbridge Performing Arts is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Sell as the organization's new Production / Facility Manager. Mark Sell's name is one that may be familiar to Bainbridge Islanders, and with good reason. Mark was, among many things, the Technical Director at BPA for many years before moving to New Orleans four years ago. During that time, he was a teacher and Technical Director at the Isidore Newman School and a construction manager for post-Katrina home rebuilding efforts. This July he rejoins BPA's technical team as Production / Facility Manager, a role in which he will work closely with existing staff to focus on the scenic and technical quality and artistry of BPA productions.

"We're thrilled at Mark's return to BPA," said Interim Executive Director Dominique Cantwell. "With more than 25 years of experience behind him, and some fantastic ideas for the season ahead, Mark is already jumping in with both feet."

BPA has been entertaining Bainbridge Island and beyond for over 54 years. Spectacular sights and sounds fill the stage each month with BPA Productions of Tony Award winning plays, beautifully crafted music performances from the Bainbridge Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Music Concerts, uplifting comedy from The EDGE Improv, innovative Theatre School classes and productions for Pre-K/K – 12th graders, advanced theatrical training for adults, and community-inspired co-productions that bring the artistic heart of Bainbridge onto the BPA stage.

BPA is supported, in part, by the Arts & Humanities Council and One Call for All.
