Bainbridge Performing Arts (BPA) seeks Interim Education Director

Bainbridge Performing Arts (BPA) is looking for an energetic, creative person to head up the Education Program for students of all ages, from pre-school through adult.

The successful candidate needs to have the vision to help grow and shape all of BPA's educational programs. Responsibilities include hiring and supervising teaching staff, interacting with parents, acquiring and adapting plays for student performances, creating comprehensive theater curriculum, attending Education Committee meetings, occasional board meetings and fundraisers, and participating in marketing efforts. In addition, the Education Program Director will be invited to teach one class per session. Prior theater education experience is key. This is a part-time position.

For a complete job description, or to apply for the position, please contact Dominique Cantwell, Interim Executive Director, 200 Madison Avenue North, Bainbridge Island, WA 98110, or respond by email to DCantwell@bainbridgeperformingarts.org. For consideration, candidates are encouraged to provide a cover letter and resume no later than June 10.

Bainbridge Performing Arts (BPA) is a non-profit community performing arts center including a theater, a symphony orchestra, a variety of comedy, dance, musical and other performances, and theater education programs for children and teenagers.
