Myth and Story Community Engagement Forum

Part of A MYTHIC WEEKEND on Bainbridge Island

Explore your relationship to Myth and Story with guest speakers and in mini-workshops

Sunday, November 8 @ 1:00 - 3:30 p.m. @ BPA

Join the Myth and Story Community Engagement Forum at BPA on November 8 as part of A MYTHIC WEEKEND - a community exploration and celebration of the role of myth and storytelling in our lives. Glen Slater, of Pacifica Graduate Institute, explores the importance of myth in our lives, with many other guest-speakers and thought leaders from the community, including Steven Boe, filmmaker, co-writer/director of Mythic Journeys; Janet O. Dallet, Jungian Analyst and writer; Philip H. Red Eagle, writer and photojournalist; and Fran Korten, Executive Director Yes! Magazine. Engage in discussions and mini-workshops to share your part of the myth, your part of the story. What's Your Story? Say "Yes!" to the journey! Visit www.MythMovie.net to learn more about A MYTHIC WEEKEND events on Bainbridge Island on November 7.

The Myth and Story Community Engagement Forum will be held Sunday, November 8 at 1:00 - 3:30 p.m. at Bainbridge Performing Arts. Tickets, $15 per person, are available at www.MythMovie.net, 206.842.0521 or mythicweekendbi@gmail.com. The event is sponsored by Pacifica Graduate Institute (www.pacifica.edu/). A MYTHIC WEEKEND on Bainbridge Island thanks the Bainbridge Island Arts and Humanities Council (www.artshum.org/) for its endorsement, saying, "We are pleased to provide the proceeds from this event to benefit local youth arts programming through the Bainbridge Island Arts Education Community Consortium."
