Kitsap Regional Library Foundation presents Between The Pages
Thursday, September 16 @ 7:30 p.m.
@ Bainbridge Performing Arts (BPA)

Spend a memorable night at Bainbridge Performing Arts with five female novelists who write with humor and heart. Five authors—including Pulitzer Prize winner Jane Smiley, Josie Brown, Eileen Goudge, Joshilyn Jackson and Tatjana Soli—are banding together for a fundraiser for the Kitsap Regional Library Foundation.

Between the Pages was the brainstorm of Brown. “When my friend, Robbie Wright, a Bainbridge Island resident, mentioned her concern about library cutbacks all over the country and how she hoped to ensure that her local Kitsap Regional Library has a strong financial year, I said I’d do what I could to help.”

Kitsap Regional Library’s funding was hit hard in the recession. “The mobile library program faces cutbacks. It services communities without libraries, the infirm, and for its less mobile senior communities,” explains Wright. “And sadly, our library system was also crippled by a recent theft. Over twenty thousand dollars worth of picture books were stolen from the children’s collection. As a local library patron, this is my way to help, to give back.”

Wright, whose company, Taylee's Productions, plans fundraisers and corporate events, wasted no time in contacting Peter Raffa, director of the Kitsap Regional Library Foundation. “Of course I said ‘Yes’,” laughed Raffa. “Who wouldn’t want to spend a night with all five of these wonderful women? The funds raised will help us tremendously. And with September being National Literacy Month, there’s no better time to come out and support your local libraries.”

Join us for Between The Pages on Thursday, September 16, at 7:30 p.m. at BPA, 200 Madison Avenue North, Bainbridge Island.
