BPA September Gallery: “Journeys”
Photographs by Norm Wooldridge
Join us for First Fridays Art Walk September 2 @ 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Travel is more than gorgeous landscape, exotic culture, or picturesque street scenes, when experienced and recorded by Norm Wooldridge. The richly expressive human face and figure, often photographed at work in some traditional craft, labor or art form, becomes both cultural icon and unique individual. From China to Turkey to Egypt and the streets of France, these beautifully composed and rendered images remind us of our shared humanity as well as the ethnic and cultural diversity of the world in which we live.

The collection of photographs opens with a public reception for the artist at the September 2 First Fridays Art Walk, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m., at the BPA Gallery. Admission is free at 200 Madison Avenue North, Bainbridge Island. The exhibit hangs through September 30. BPA Gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Tuesday – Friday, plus one hour prior to each September performance. Color prints are available for purchase in both framed and unframed formats.
